

Stall Holder application for Farha Tour 2008

The Farha Tour Committee wishes to advise that applications are now open for stallholders for the Khan El Khalili Bazaar. The Bazaar will be held at the Riverside Theatre from Thursday 6th November through to Saturday 8th November 2008.

The Call for applications by stallholders is requested to assist in planning. The closing date for applications is 28th March 2008 with full payment required by this date.

Whilst the Farha Tour Committee strives to develop, promote and produce a great event, it nevertheless acknowledges the involvement and contribution made by you, the stallholder.

Stallholders will be selected on the following priority basis:

- 1) Previous involvement
- 2) Middle Eastern group or Association
- 3) Stall holders that display a distinct Middle Eastern Flavor
- 4) New stall holders with an interesting or different presentation
- 5) Strict adherence on items sold with the site

Stallholders are again encouraged to consider their presentation and variety of items sold or displayed. Attention to detail can make a big difference to the financial success of your operation.

We further advise that all electrical equipment is your responsibility. We will not be available to repair faulty equipment. Any equipment that is faulty and causing power supply problems will be disconnected. The stallholders must be aware of this. Furthermore, the fees charged for the site include electricity and lighting to the site.

Stallholders are reminded that sites must be left clean at the end of the event, if not an additional fee may be charged for cleaning.

Stallholders must be set up at the event the designated day and time given by the organizers and ready to trade by 9am on 6th November 2008 and finish trading by 11pm on 8th November 2008.

All stallholders must supply their own trestle tables, chairs, display stands, etc needed for their stall. The Riverside or The Farha Tour is not responsible for any items you may need for the operational purposes for your stall.

We enclose herewith the application form for the Farha Tour 2008. In order to secure your stall space for Farha Tour 2008, the application form must be completed and returned to the Farha Tour 2008, C/o Amera's Palace, P.O. Box 830 Newtown NSW 2042, Sydney Australia or by email or fax.

Please note that we may or may not approve of all the items you apply to sell in order to avoid duplication and ask that you are specific in your item requires, that is to say all items wishing to be sold must be stipulated specifically on the application form and if not sufficient space you can attach a separate list.

As soon as we approve your application we shall notify you of the FINAL STALL HOLDERS MEETING to which we expect the attendance of all successful applicants.

Prior to this we will contact you, if your application is successful and make available the rates and sizes for the stalls.

Please be aware that you must commit to the duration of the festival (6th, 7th & 8th November 2008) Security after hours of the festival will be available at the Riverside Theatre.

Stallholders should hold relevant insurances. The Farha Tour takes no responsibility.

Please do not hesitate to contact me on any matters contained in this correspondence on 0412 009983 or by email info@farhatour.com.au

Yours faithfully
